

WARTBURG TRUMPET

CHOIR LEAVES ON TOUR APRIL 12

WORK, NOVICE!

Newcomers Initiated
With Special Tasks

Wartburg cherishes tradition. The Wartburg college choir is no exception to the rule.

In order that everything will progress with characteristic speed and efficiency while the group is on its annual spring tour, special committees are appointed to perform certain important tasks.

Following the tradition, these committees are made up of the new members of the choir. This is a timely form of initiation enforced in the organization, and previous members have proved that they are efficient as well as good sports. This year the following persons will be given a chance to prove their mettle on their respective committees:

Stand Committee: Victor Schroeder, chairman; Oswald Wirthmann, Victor Hennig and John Hughes.

Dance Committee: Carlton Bahr, chairman; Arnold Schlueter, Roland Schlueter and Gerhard Dinger.

Wardemar Gies will have charge of the programs, and Ann Aardal and Richard Werth will have charge of picking the ladies' and men's gowns.

FORTY-EIGHT MEMBERS TO TRAVEL 1500 MILES APR. 12-28

South Dakota, Minnesota, and Iowa Audiences Will Hear Choristers Under Baton of Prof. E. Liemohn.

In less than a week the Wartburg college choir will have begun its annual trek over almost 1500 miles of highway. Two Sioux Limited Lines' busses have been chartered to transport the largest number of singers ever selected for concert tour across Minnesota, South Dakota, and northern Iowa.

GYPSY ENSEMBLE GREETED WITH ENTHUSIASM

Each Artist
Personally Famous
As a Musician.

Dressed in colorful and picturesque costumes, the Continental Ensemble, directed by Ador Berger, presented an outstanding concert of gypsy music in Wartburg auditorium Monday, April 1.

The ensemble, consisting of violin, cello, bass, piano and accordion, is unique because each artist has made a personal reputation for himself as an interpreter of his own instrument. Each musician demonstrated superior ability as a soloist and at the same time skillfully blended his instrument with the others. Ador Berger, director, has held prominent positions as concert master and soloist.

The ensemble opened its concert with a group called "Rhapsody Horrologi," introducing Verso Chorus and Czardas from "Countess Maritza," modulating into the Czardas from "The Fortune Teller" by Victor Herbert, and closing with "Two Hungarian Dances"—numbers 5 and 6—Brahms.

After the second part of the concert the ensemble played a request, "Ave Maria," by an organist. Alexander Aster played "The Music Box," by Liadow.

The third part of the concert consisted of a "Symphony of Romance and Dance." This included "The Swan Lake" numbers, "The Artist's Life," Wiener Blut—Tales from Vienna Woods—Wine, Women and Song—where the Clemons Grow, and closed with "The Blue Danube."

The fourth part included a concert version of "Dark and Stormy Fiddle, Play," and "Two Guitars." The finale, "Play Gypsies, Dance Gypsies," is the Continental Ensemble's theme song.

In addition to the 20 regular concert appearances that have been scheduled for the 17 days that the group will be on tour, a broadcast has been tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, April 23 from 2-2:15 p. m., over station KSOO, Sioux Falls, S. Dak. 1110 kilocycles on your radio dial.

This is the fourth year that the choir has made a tour of any extent. In 1937 a choir toured Minnesota under the able directorship of Prof. E. G. Heist; in 1938 the group toured Illinois; and, in 1939, Wisconsin.

Liemohn's Third Tour.

This year's trip will mark the third season that Prof. E. Liemohn has directed the choir. He has won the praise and commendation of music critics everywhere for his fine interpretations of the best of sacred music, as well as for his own compositions. He works as a brilliant organist drawing forth melodious harmonies and contrasts in presenting a "sermon in song."

Rev. C. G. Shalkhauser, in the capacity of field manager for Wartburg college, is the manager for the choir. He has made the statement that several interesting visits are being planned enroute on the tour, but as yet they are not known to the choir members.

Dorothy Kraushaar of Waverly, Iowa, will again accompany the group as chaplain.

Varied Program.
The program being presented this year is as follows:

- Part I
1. Jesu, Priceless Treasure (J. S. Bach)
2. Ascendit Deus (Jacobus Galis)
3. With Joyful Song (Constantine Schvedof)
4. The Spirit Also Helpeth Us (J. S. Bach)

- Part II
5. My God, My God (Felix Mendelssohn)
6. The Three Kings (Old Cathedral Nativity Song)
7. The Earth is full of the Glory of God (Peter Lukken)
8. O Mein Jesu (Arr. by E. Liemohn)

- Part III
9. Awake, My Soul (E. Liemohn).

Athletics Discussed in First Wartburg Open Forum

Enthusiasm Shown
By Students and Faculty Alike.

Some very interesting facts were brought out at the open forum Tuesday, April 2, on the subject of athletics at Wartburg. Pres. E. J. Brumack gave three reasons for maintaining athletics at any college and applied these to Wartburg. These reasons included promotion of health, creation of interest among the students, and raising and maintaining publicity.

This phase of athletics was continued by Orville Ihmen, who talked on the average spectator's and prospective student's views. Coach McKinzie mentioned the fact that most good athletes go to a school which does the most to help them. This subject was debated more heatedly than any other part of the program. President Brumack showed how the two conferences are subsidizing as well as competing with schools who break the rather strict rules.

Martha Leeseberg presented the possibility of withdrawing from all intercollegiate athletics. This phase of the problem was rejected by practically all students and faculty at the forum. A. C. Schumacher gave several valuable suggestions to the students of the college, particularly the "W" club members, in interesting high school seniors in coming to Wartburg.

Professor Chelivold related the history of Wartburg's participation in the Iowa Conference and encouraged the students by reminding them that all schools have their ups and downs and that after all the Iowa Conference is composed of 13 schools. Members of the audience, both faculty and students, gave opinions on various aspects of the general subject.

The meeting was very well attended. There were about 75 students and about 10 faculty members present. The meeting was sponsored by the debate club which invited Richard Wall to act as guest chairman.

DEBATE CLUB TO SPONSOR MEET

Sixty-one High Schools Invited to Participate.

April 20, at 9 o'clock, will mark the opening of the Wartburg invitational forum meet, under the sponsorship of the Wartburg debate club. Invitations have been sent to 61 of the best high schools. According to Mrs. R. McKinzie, Wartburg debate fellows are anxious to have a large number of contesting schools are excellent.

The program will consist of debating, extemporaneous speaking and after-dinner speaking. Each school will bring both an affirmative and a negative team which will remain on the same side of the question. "Resolved, that the federal government should own and operate the railroads."

The general topic for extemporaneous speaking will be "Government ownership of Public Utilities," and the topic for after-dinner speaking will be "Apple Polishing." Awards will be offered.

DIRECTOR AND SOLOIST

Prof. E. Liemohn will take the Wartburg choir on its fourth annual concert tour beginning next Friday.

Miss Irene Drevelow, junior, of Hazen, North Dakota, will be featured as soprano soloist by the Wartburg choir.

SCHLUTSMEYER'S

STUDENT-FACULTY POLL

On Thursday of this week the Feature Department of the Trumpet took a cross section of student and faculty opinion on four questions by means of a poll.

1. Do you feel that an average college student can participate in more than two (2) extra-curricular activities without having his scholastic standing lowered?
 2. Was this year's lacrosse series satisfactory to you?
 3. Do you think that open forum discussions help clarify opinion on student problems?
 4. Would you favor direct primaries in student body elections?
- A total of 176 students and 14 faculty members voted. These figures represent 25 per cent of each group. In answer to the first question, 81 students voted "yes," 95 voted "no." The second question had almost equally different results with 157 students voting "yes," 19 voting "no" and all 14 faculty members voting "yes." One hundred forty-three students voted "yes" in answer to the third question and 33 voted "no." Thirteen faculty members voted "yes" and one "no" on the same question. The fourth question received 133 "yes" votes from the students and 23 "no" votes. Nine of the faculty members voted "yes" and five voted "no."

This poll shows a fair cross section of the student and faculty opinion in regard to these four questions. The poll met with such cooperation and response that it may be undertaken again on different questions in the future.

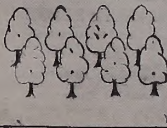

DID YOU KNOW?

that it took I. M. Leschensky 4 years and a malted milk to learn directions in Iowa?

that Prof. Muench used to be a basketball coach?

that once upon a time Wartburg's campus was a nursery?

Spring's here! And how do I know? Well...

One of the trees near Old Main is about to have leaves. Professor Ottersberg has donated his brown suit.

A Frie Hauger and lightning "happened" the other night. Static on the radio.

The fountain has once again come to life. Coach Buermann washed his car.

Mid-western grades are on the way. Last Monday night, the gale rattled into their long windows and ushered in the last icy weather of this year.

By the way, that music still lingers with me that cello!

So, new play suits came back with the true after vacation—all set for those picnics and outings this Cedar River country is needed for.

Style show guests Tuesday afternoon and evening were served by several of the coeds. The coeds, co-eds, new gowns...

April is term-paper month, it seems, since the prods have a monopoly on May 1 as a dead-end day. Well, prods, if you recall, I'll still kick you flowers.

If the Trumpet were the small town type of paper that reaches when Lizzie Jones went to Podunk Center to buy her a new Easter bonnet, it would have all available space filled with: Miss So and So went to Sumner to visit the school band—Mr. So and So had a chat with the superintendent, et cetera.

These teachers are really busy going after jobs, and we certainly wish them luck.

I've heard rumors over and over again repeated with careful facts that our wed have all available space filled with: Miss So and So went to Sumner to visit the school band—Mr. So and So had a chat with the superintendent, et cetera.

SIX TEACHERS HAVE POSITIONS

Dr. M. Wiederaenders Reveals Work of Placement Bureau.

Dr. M. Wiederaenders, head of the teacher placement bureau, has announced that up to April 2, four grade school teachers and two high school teachers have accepted positions for the next school year. This, according to Dr. Wiederaenders, is a very promising showing for so early in the season.

The work of the bureau thus far this season has shown the following results: Anita Stange is going to teach in the Clear View school, Lake township, Muscatine county. Roland Koeber has accepted a position in Taylor, N. Dak., where he will teach the upper grades and will be in charge of the musical organizations in the high school. Loraine Escaten will teach music and English in the Grose Lake consolidated high school. Fern Oelke will teach in rural school No. 3, Grand Meadow township, Clayton county. Lorna Mae Folkerts has accepted a position at Plainfield, where she will teach the high school where she will teach home economics, science, and girls' physical education. Gretchen Hauff will go to Readdy, where she has done practice teaching the past few weeks.

Since March 5 the bureau has sent out 145 separate pieces of mail; letters, credentials, etc. A total of 31 teachers have been recommended at 60 different in schools throughout Iowa and the surrounding states. About 25 sets of credentials have been sent to commercial teachers agencies throughout the state.

In handling this extensive correspondence, the commercial department has rendered valuable service. Six students of that department, over a period of three days, took care of about 40 letters for the placement bureau.

REPAIR PROGRAM IMPORTANT TO COLLEGE

Hats Off to the Campus Committee
And Its Employees.

By L. Hook

There is an organization on the campus which week in and week out is making for a better and a greater Wartburg. No glory and little credit is received by those who work under it, but should their activities suddenly cease the walls which would rise from the student body would rend the heavens in twain.

So hats off and orchids to the building and grounds committee and its little army of student employees who do so much to make life at Wartburg pleasant.

This committee, composed of Prof. J. Cornick, Prof. G. Ottersberg, Coach R. McKinzie, and Prof. A. Aaral, chairman, has a continuous system operating for the improvement of buildings, grounds and educational facilities.

Most of us have noted the new brick porch on Mrs. Bradick's house, which is only awaiting favorable weather conditions for its completion.

Build Your Choir Trunk

The Wartburg college choir is proud of its large new trunk which will carry the choir robes on the coming tour.

In Prof. Ottersberg's history room a large new bulletin board is under construction.

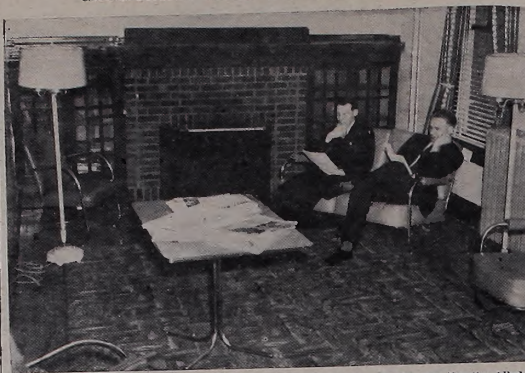

Two stack steps are under construction for the library. These are being made of oak to match the other furnishings and will enable the librarians to reach the higher shelves more easily.

These and a long list of other improvements are being carried out by the building and grounds committee. New mirrors have been ordered and will be placed in Grossmann lavatories. Students in the workshop are keeping tables, chairs, and dressers in a good state of repair.

Care for Buildings and Grounds.

It is the boys who work under this committee who fire the furnaces in Grossmann hall, North Hall, Old Main, and the gymnasium. It is these employees who keep our grounds in such a beautiful condition that visitors often remark about them.

GROSSMANN HALL RECEPTION ROOM

This is a view of the north end of the refurbished reception room in Grossmann hall showing several pieces of the new modernist furniture, draperies made and hung by the famely women, and the new Venetian blinds. The gentlemen so busily engaged are Luther Meyer on the left and Rialto Rossler on the right.

RECEPTION ROOM IN GROSSMANN IMPROVED

Administration and Faculty Wives Give Furniture, Drapes.

A completely renovated reception room has been provided for Grossmann hall residents during the past few weeks. Improvements include new modernistic furniture, Venetian blinds, and a complete revarnishing and painting. The administration provided the furniture with the exception of the drapes, which were donated by the faculty ladies. A mirror has been ordered but has not as yet arrived.

Two floor lamps, new light fixtures, a modernistic table, two three-piece sets including two easy chairs and one "love-seat" each, light Venetian blinds, two ash trays, and drapes make up the new furnishings. The floor was varnished, the walls painted, and the rug cleaned.

Faculty committee in charge of the renovation was composed of Professor John Chellebold, chairman, and Professors Aaral and Fritz. Several Grossmann hall residents assisted in choosing the furniture, and the varnishing and painting was done by students employed by the school.

The room is to be used for receiving guests and for lounging purposes. The recipients are unanimously pleased and proud of the improvement.

Mathilda Frhm of Tama, Iowa, is visiting her sister Florence.

DEBATERS LAND HIGH RATINGS

Three Unbeaten in Season of Fifty Debates.

This year witnessed an unprecedented improvement in the Beta Lambda Lambda, Wartburg's debate club. In the season just closed the club won fifty debates, lost ten, tied one, and participated in twenty non-decision debates. This record is even more notable when it is considered that the club met twenty-two schools during the year, including the State University of Iowa, Omaha University, Monmouth, Illinois State Teachers at Normal, Ill., Coe College, and Upper Iowa.

With all due credit to Charles Schmitz, last year's ace debater, this year's team was much better than last year's. Mrs. Ralph McKinzie, Wartburg debate coach, could use any member of the squad in any combination this year. This was exemplified in the triangular debate tournament with Dubuque University and Upper Iowa University. Wartburg entered fourteen debates with ten different combinations.

The records further show that three members of this year's squad were undefeated. These men are Karl Landgrebe, Theodore Schmitt, and Raymond Kronberger. Martin Leeseberg was not far behind the leaders, winning thirteen and losing one. Edwin

UP AND COMING

Print Shop Adds More
Equipment, Facilities.

The campus print shop is steadily adding to its efficiency with new pieces of equipment. One of the latest additions is an all-metal dustproof type cabinet. It is made up of 24 type cases, all of which have already been filled with type. Each case holds a different style of type. The proof press has also been added quite recently. It was a second-hand piece of equipment, but it is in good working order. A new lighting system has been installed, and, according to Mr. Baerman, it is now the best-lighted room on the campus.

Schick participated in the most debates. His name appears in thirty debates, winning fourteen, losing four, and participating in twelve non-decision debates.

In addition to his work in debate, Raymond Kronberger won the Peace oratorical contest last fall. Norman Orth, this year's ace, won a superior rating at the state contest. Mrs. McKinzie was elected president of the Iowa Peace Association.

TRICK LIGHTING ENHANCES STAGE

Much interest has been displayed of late in the lighting of the stage for the Dramatics club's recent play, "The Ferris Wheel." All of the lighting and stage work was in charge of Mr. Carlton Rohr, junior, of Mason City.

The entire stage background and all the stage equipment was painted a light grey. The only light on the stage was a candle in a lantern and a light bulb covered with red cellophane placed under logs to create the impression of fire.

The lighting of the crucifix was effected by using a baby spot light with a convex lens and a specially adapted framework to contain a slide of the crucifixion scene. The slide was prepared by Miss Helen Wright, instructor in art.

In a later scene the illusion of a rising sun was created by a projector and a slide.

BEFORE OR AFTER

The church, God's people, is interested in the welfare of both body and soul of the people. It teaches scriptural guidance to old and young. Thus the Bible has become a proven source of happiness and blessedness for thousands.

Mighty powers try to destroy both body and soul in sin and evil and eternal hell. Temptations assail. Evils shine and attract. The careless and unthinking easily fall prey.

In the Davenport district court we lack a definite juvenile court with its thorough investigation and study of the cases.

The ordinary court and judges try to take care of these cases. The Ministerial Alliance is taking a definite hand in this work. They wish to help these delinquent juveniles before they get into the courts and are sent to state penal institutions and branded for the rest of their lives. Should sentence be pronounced, they endeavor to have a bench parole for the case and thus be given opportunity to help, build up, and save a life and a soul before being confined to the penal institutions. A big job but much worth while.

The church wants to do the same for adult criminals. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. The church aims to surround its young people and old people with powers and influences that will guard them against the destructive evils and temptations of life. The church helps to rescue and preserve as far as that is possible even after the powers of evil have wrought their work. That isn't so easy. It is far easier and better to prevent, to help avoid, to stave off the hour of falling.

The world is full of educated criminals; such as have had higher education, but who through this higher education were misled upon such paths and to such theories which tend to rob the individual of the sense of true values, of faith in God, of love, of truth, and righteousness. As a consequence they become "educated criminals".

Wartburg college, the effort of God's church and people, desires to establish, to make firm, the life of the individual student for the sake of his body and soul and their welfare here and hereafter.

—Louis G. Krebs, Alumni President.

GRADS TAKE TEAMS TO STATE

Clinton, St. Paul, and Waverly Alumni Teams Out Champion Seasons

Roy Paster, former St. Paul Luther, all-around athlete and now coaching at Mountain Lake, Minn., took his basketball team to the semi-finals of the Minnesota state high school tournament last week-end. His boys won their first game and dropped a close of 26 decision in the semi-finals but had to be satisfied with fourth place in the tourney when they were defeated the following evening. This is Paster's first year at Mountain Lake. While at St. Paul Luther, he starred in football, basketball and track.

The basketball team of Greenwood, Neb., which went to the state finals, is coached by L. H. LePrevoist, graduate of 1925. LePrevoist received his B. A. from Wartburg and his M. A. from the University of Iowa in 36. He is married to the former Emma LaRue Holm of Clinton, also a former Wartburg student.

Walter Luskens, graduate in the class of 38, who is now coaching at Johnson, Neb., sends word that his basketball team has won the first championship team in the history of the school.

Seminary Notes

Sem Quarterly Appears

The third issue of the Quarterly of the Wartburg Seminary association appeared March 15. Included in this edition was a parable by Dean G. J. Neumann of Wartburg college which was entitled "Of the Armor of Faith." Running currently in this periodical is a historical sketch of the Seminary written by August Engelbrecht III, former Wartburg college student.

PASTOR TALKS ON SPIRITUALISM

Supernatural Powers Demonstrated for Benefit of Seminarians.

Rev. M. C. Elz, Missouri Lutheran pastor who has devoted full time to the work of uncovering tricks and apparent supernatural powers of spiritualists, assembled his class in the lecture hall on Wednesday evening, March 21, in presenting a careful study of the spiritualist movement.

Pastor Elz presented first of all a short history of spiritualism, which he terms "egotistic materialism which is strictly for entertainment purposes." In addition he presented an analysis of the various methods, mind reading and other satanic arts, showing their inception, and even the equipment used to secure information without the subject's knowledge.

Pastor Elz, in a plain and simple way, told of the widespread scope of the influence of these so-called spiritualists and warned the future pastors to use their influence to counteract these deceits. He closed with a presentation of what a Christian pastor should know of the future by reading his Bible.

— and now a graduate student at the seminary.

Offering

The Lenten offering, which was raised at the seminary this year, totaled $59, which will be contributed to missions or maintained by war-torn nations.

Dedication

A set of white hangings for the altar and pulpit of the seminary chapel was dedicated at a special service Monday evening, April 1. The beautiful silk drape hangings were presented to the seminary in memory of the late Dr. P. by members of his family. Prof. S. Saltzman conducted the liturgy and made a short introductory address. Among those present for the service were Mr. and Mrs. Studer of Waverly, Mr. and Mrs. George Rausch, Readlyn, Mrs. E. Rausch, Waverly.

Entertainers

Herbert Jech, seminary senior, appeared at a monthly social gathering held by the seminary of St. Matthew's church, Manitowish, Rev. H. L. Adig, pastor, on Sunday evening, March 31. He entertained his audience with a display of sleight-of-hand tricks.

Midday Preach

Following Easter, preaching calls sent to the seminary are being filled by members of the middle class. Senior seminarians fill the calls until Easter.

Seminary Octet

The seminary octet will make two short tours during the month of April, one to western Iowa, April 19 to 21, and later to southern Wisconsin, April 28 to 28. Dr. Albert Jagow will accompany them and present a lecture on the development of church music through the ages. The octet as well as quartet and solo numbers will be used to illustrate his comments. Those members of the octet making the tours are Ervin Seidel and Albert Gutzwillf, first tenor; Edwin Knitt and Norbert Boer, second tenor; Immanuel Kuester and Edward Gutzwillf, bass; and Leonard Dumke and Herman Seif, second bass. Filling a long-felt need in the chapel, the student body presented a hymn board to the seminary as a memorial to Dr. Maximilian Fritsch who passed away during the first semester of the present school term.

COACH OUSTED; STUDENTS STRIKE

"Sam" Ellemier, '38, Commands Plenty of Loyalty—No Contract.

The attention of many Wartburgers has recently been drawn to the high school at Selma, Iowa, where Carl E. Ellemier, class of '38 is employed as coach. Selma is a small town on the Des Moines river, has a consolidated school of 40 students. When Mr. Ellemier was hired there, all the departments were in a run down condition, but he has succeeded in making noticeable improvements in his department. He has started a junior high basketball team, he has a good basketball team of girls and the boys' team has won more games this season than it did in any one of the several seasons preceding.

In spite of the fact that Mr. Ellemier has done much for the school, the school board met on Tuesday evening, March 26, and voted to release him. The student body, upon hearing this, went on strike the following Friday afternoon. On the same day, three petitions were started in the community asking that he be retained. The week-end intervened, but the students failed to come to school again on Monday. The school board met on Monday night, and the students returned to school on Tuesday. But, upon hearing that no decision had been reached they left school for the second time. Then on Tuesday evening a public meeting was held. Here the superintendent stated the reasons that he considered enough to justify the coach's dismissal. Much public sentiment was voiced in favor of Mr. Ellemier. After stating a few facts in self-defense, the coach asked the students to return to school. Nearly all of them came back on Wednesday, and since that time classes have been carried on without interruption. No decision has yet been reached because the president and one member of the school board have refused. A school election will have to be held before Mr. Ellemier can be rehired.

DREW PEARSON APPEARS BEFORE RECORD CROWD

Drew Pearson, nationally famous political commentator and co-author of the Washington Merry-Go-Round, appeared in the Wartburg auditorium Thursday evening, Mar. 28, as the outstanding feature of this year's lecture series. The audience, the largest ever to attend a Wartburg lecture number, was very much interested in Mr. Pearson's wide knowledge of domestic and international affairs.

Will Roosevelt seek a third term? What about the efforts being made to bring peace to Europe? To these questions Mr. Pearson indicated possible answers in his address.

Third Term for Roosevelt?

He expressed the opinion that Roosevelt, who is now showing the symptoms of a candidate, is unlikely will not disclose until the morning the Democratic convention convenes whether or not he is a candidate for renomination. In regard to the Republicans Pearson felt that Justice Roberts of the Supreme Court, a dark-

"The allies today are in a much more serious predicament than they were a year ago," declared Mr. Pearson. At present, the most important front is the "sea front," but the economic blockade of the Allies has not been broken.

Mr. Pearson was presented to the audience by E. G. Carey of the Wartburg Courier. After the address Mr. Pearson answered a number of questions asked by members of the audience.

Frosh Girls Defeat Upperclassmen; 'B' Team on Long End.

By Ed Schick
Sponsored by the Wartburg Sports Night, marked with class girls' basketball, rough-and-tumble boys basketball, and the grunts and groans of wrestling, was held at the gymnasium on Thursday evening, April 4.

Frosh vs. Upperclassmen.
For the first event of the evening, the doors were opened wide to a fine specimen of girls' basketball. The Wartburg boys proved that they had a little more ability and emerged with a thrilling 34 to 20 victory.

Led by Marjorie Page, who scored 12 points during the first half, the freshman took command of the game at the opening and led 14 to 9 at the end of the first period. Viv Glick did some fine shooting and narrowed the gap to 21 to 19 at the half time intermission. Starting with renewed vigor after the second period, the upperclassmen put the lead back into the frosh when they consistently led a hoop to force into the lead 24 to 21. But the freshman girls were not to be outdone and with a burst of fine basketball they scored 26 to 20 lead at the end of the third canto.

The fourth period was a nip-and-tuck affair with the score 30 to 20 with a minute to go. Page scored a gift shot and Florence Jones scored a goal to win the game, 34 to 20.

Seniors vs. Rinkydinks.
With their well-known rivalry and the Rinkydinks hit the maple for a closely contested match which was ended in a hard fought victory 24 to 20 for the Rinkydinks.

The first quarter was a defensive battle while both teams were trying to get their range and the period ended with the Rinkydinks on the long end of a 3 to 0 score. In the second stanza, up the tempo and playing a better brand of ball during the second quarter, the seniors found the range and outscored their rivals 12 to 6, to lead at half time 12 to 6.

Ed Sandrock, who had been the star of the senior attack, left the game on fouls as the second half got under way. The B team took control of the game and the Senior attack and pulled up to within two points of the seniors, 12 to 10, at the end of the third canto.

Displaying a superior offense, the Rinkydinks turned on the seniors in the fourth stanza, leaving their rivals to the tune of 24 to 20 as the final whistle sounded.

Behind Winterfeldt, coach and captain of the Rinkydinks, and high scorer for the event with ten points.

During the rest period of the Senior-Rinkydink game, grunts and groans of several wrestlers were heard from the gymnasium.

Box score of girls' game:
Seniors—33
Upperclassmen—20

The Knight Rider

DIAMOND DISCOURSE

With little robin red breast flying hither and yon in search of the not too plentiful green grass in Waverly, the initial call for baseball men resulted in no less than twenty-five men putting on their spikes and trotting out onto the field to throw, catch, and bat that little baseball. Sure, most of them wear tennis shoes but they really need spikes to pitch through the mud. Seven lettermen are back to form the nucleus of this year's squad which will have to go some to surpass the record of last year's squad which ended in a tie for second place in the Iowa Conference last year. The two senior men, Captain Kappmeyer and Johnny Emmons are ready to put a real finish on their Wartburg athletic career.

Kapp will probably see most of his action around the "hot corner" (third base) but will probably be called on to do some swirling. Emmons will bear the brunt of the pitching along with Marvin Peterson. Emmons can really steam them across the plate but he has won many of his own games by his terrific hitting ability. Last year he headed the Knight hitters and in view of this he will probably patrol the center field position when not on the mound to give that added punch to the batting forces.

MORE BASEBALL.

Naturally, in left field we will miss that tall, goodnatured outfielder, Wally Lange, who could throw a strike across the plate from the outer pastures. Ex-captain Carl Kalkwarf will be absent from his favorite center field position. Behind the plate, we'll miss "Ed" Johnson, talkative, able backstop who is ineligible this semester. The midget of last year's team, Shirley Meyer, who amazed all opponents and home folks with his uncanny fielding ability, failed to return to school. In his place you will undoubtedly see Sauder, a junior transfer from our college at Regina, Canada. Sauder has really been pasting that pill (excuse me ladies, I mean—hitting that ball). His fielding ability is not far behind his power at the plate and Rheiny will undoubtedly see plenty of action. I have it on good authority that every afternoon the people at the west end of the ball field retire to their "air paid" shelters for fear of being hit by one of the balls off of Sauder's bat !!! So far Orville Kalkwarf has shown himself to be capable of doing a great job of catching. He's light on his feet and very aggressive. At first base you will probably see huge, red-tatched Rudy Langholz and at second base the peppery, talkative Ihnen. In the outfield, lettermen Leschensky and Rothenberg will probably receive the first call. Leschensky adds plenty of power at bat as does "Cowboy" but the latter's inability to run bases may cost him his position. Well, along with this fine turnout of lettermen, comes a good crop of outstanding frosh contenders. Among the leaders we have noted Ray Schaefer, "Rem" Reimler, and Willis Strainbrook, outfielders. Vic Hennik and Lawrence Kampfe, infielders. You may rest assured that the Knights will put a classy team on the diamond this year. Just like Kapp says: "Watch the Yankees . . . and Wartburg!"

Intimidating drills started this week in baseball with 25 men reporting to coach R. McKinnin in his initial call for players. Prospects are bright this year with seven lettermen returning from last season's nine. Last year the McKinnin squad ended up in a tie for second place in the Iowa conference, giving evidence that the Wartburg Knights of the diamond were a top team in the conference.

Captain "Bill" Kappmeyer heads the list of returning lettermen. Last season "Kapp" alternated at the third base spot and at pitching. Bill will be playing his last year, and it not definite where he will be used this year. His potential bat was a constant menace to opposing pitchers in the last campaign. Johnny Emmons, the baseball pitcher and manager of the Wartburg mound staff in the 1938 campaign, also is a senior and playing his last season under Coach McKinnin. Johnny is back ready to pitch Wartburg to more wins in the current campaign. Another one of John's assets is hitting power. Last year he led all Wartburg hitters in that department. Ed Rothenberg and Armin Leschensky, two letter winning outfielders as freshmen, are again back to patrol the outer gardens and also to add strength to the hitting power of the team. Unlike Ihnen, a junior this year, won a letter playing the second base position last year, and is slated to lead down the second sack again this year. Rudy Langholz, a senior, also is back to patrol the action at both catching and first base in his freshman year. Rudy has a letter man and is slated to go places this year. Last but not least of the letter men, is Marvin "Pet" Peterson. A very promising pitcher, he has won a letter in his last year. He is slated to do the heavy work in that department this season. He pitched some good ball games last year and in his second year should

DISSIMINATION

I did write all of that just about baseball? Well, to tell the truth, I guess I did, because there isn't much else to write about. But after the breathing spell I guess we can start on sumpin else.

GREAT RACKETS

That is what Marty Heist is going to swing on the tennis courts this season. Friends predict that he will bring the Iowa Conference Tennis Championship to Wartburg this year so watch Marty and his tennis racket—when the courts get dry enough to use. Marty plays a hard, deceptive, cool game and is getting better every year. Of course we can't forget that Mississippi Holm who hails from Clinton and is the only other returning lettermen. When Lew and Marty get together, the outcome is usually a toss-up so maybe Lew will win the championship! At least, in Heist and Holm, Wartburg has two men that will go a long way in tennis this year. As I see it this early in the season, the outstanding bidder for 3rd position is Virgil Lavey. I finish it, I'm tired. Virgil is a great player and will do much to add needed strength to the Knight tennis team.

THANK YOU

The Trumphet, but in particular, the Sports Department, wishes to thank all who participated in a very successful and exciting Sports Night. We realize it is a little late in the season and was held on a bad night but I think I am safe in saying that all spectators were rewarded with two exciting ball games. We are willing to bet that Sandrock loosened more than the season in the gym and maybe a few other things. If the girls' basketball team had played the way they played at Sports Night they would have gone through their season undefeated.

Free throws missed: Seniors, 6; Rinkydinks, 7.

have profited from past experience. With these seven lettermen as a nucleus, Coach McKinnin will work for a better team than last year's aggregation.

NINE KNIGHTS RECEIVE LETTERS IN BASKETBALL

As recently announced by Coach R. McKinnin, nine members of this year's basketball squad will be awarded letters for their services under the orange and black.

Captain Bill Kappmeyer, senior guard from Oelwein, Iowa, and high scorer for the season, will receive the fourth basketball letter of his college career.

John Emmons, senior guard and forward, from Nashua, Iowa, this year earned his second letter.

Sigmund Sandrock, another senior guard and forward, from Bellevue, Iowa, this year broke into the letter-earning ranks for the first time.

Wartburg's long shot artist from Waverly, Iowa, Martin Heist, a junior, will this year be presented with his third basketball letter.

Richard Wagner, better known as "Meatball", a junior from Tarry, Iowa, this year played himself into his first letter.

That speedy midget Edwin Oberlander, junior from Eureka, S. Dak., also will be presented with his first letter.

Rudolph Langholz, Wanda, Minn., and Harold Becker, Fond du Lac, Wis., both sophomores, will be presented with their first letters.

Sam Mieson, sophomore from Strawberry Point, Iowa, will this year receive his second basketball award.

Much credit is due the boys for a very fine showing in what has been the hardest schedule the Knights have had in years. They worked hard as all who saw them perform know, and deserve our full support. We will cheer to Coach McE and the boys!

ITS STUDENTS WITH---

A Christian Home

Comfortable, modern dormitories are essential for a homelike atmosphere such as prevails on the Wartburg campus. But far more important are wholesome Christian surroundings. Wartburg aims to maintain and perpetuate the Christian customs and traditions that are foundation-stones in the Christian homes from which its students come.

A Christian Objective

To train young people for positions of leadership, for greater opportunity to gain success—these are important objectives towards which a college can point its students.
